

2017-2018 Jerry Bailey Educational Opportunity Scholarship

Application Instructions

The Jerry Bailey Educational Opportunity Scholarship was established to provide financial support for low-income, underrepresented, and first-generation students as they pursue an undergraduate degree at the University of Kansas. Current or former participants in a KU Center for Educational Opportunity Program (CEOP) receive preference, but participation is not required. One to two scholarships will be awarded ranging from $750 to $1,500.

ELIGIBILITY / SELECTION CRITERIA

Applicant must be an entering freshman/transfer student OR continuing undergraduate student, enrolled full-time (12+ hours) at KU during the Fall 2017 term. The Selection Committee will give preference to applicants who meet as many as possible of the following criteria:

- Demonstrate financial need
- Have first-generation college-going status, meaning neither parent/guardian has earned a 4-year college degree
- Are current or former participants of a KU CEOP program
- Have achieved academic success despite hardship or unusual challenge
- Demonstrate personal motivation for achieving academic and career goals
